

The 45 Best Gifts for the Man Who Appreciates Real Luxury

Brace yourself: You'll have to drop some dollars on a gift he hasn't already bought for himself. ▶

 By Esquire Editors Dec 4, 2020

Luxury is owning something that few other people do. It's being able to show off style and taste, and most importantly, exclusivity. And, unfortunately, having luxe tastes makes someone very annoying to shop for (especially come the holiday season). What doesn't he already possess that he has ever dreamed of owning? What item could he possibly need that you haven't already drooled over while visiting his place? How do you enter this realm of luxury without making a complete fool of yourself?

To make things less anxiety-inducing, we'll guide you through the upper echelons of the price spectrum. Whether your idea of luxury floats in the sub-$200 range or inflates itself into the many of thousands, these are 45 ultra-luxe, ultra-unique gift ideas for men that'll be big hits. They might even be drooled over. No one needs to know you asked for the assist.

The Ultimate Art Subscription

SAATCHI ART

saatchiart.com

$30,000.00

BUY

You wouldn't presume to know his taste in art. But an art curator assigned to him by Saatchi and tasked with sending him a new piece every month would.

To view the full story visit <https://www.esquire.com/lifestyle/g1339/luxury-gifts/>